

About the ACCT Leadership Congress

The ACCT Leadership Congress is the largest professional development opportunity for community college trustees, presidents, and other thought and policy leaders. It's an opportunity for community college leaders to share experiences and expertise, network with people from around the country and beyond, and expand your knowledge of the community college sector.

The event will feature nationally renowned keynote speakers, peer-to-peer and expert presentations designed to advance governance and student success, and a platform through which to network with community college, public policy, business and other leaders from throughout the United States and beyond.
